Taylor regards a full iron shot as not more than 90 yards. The mashie is Taylor s favourite club. The Vardons are also very fond of it. The implements used in the approach are designed so that they may be employed with best effect, within certain distances, yet their limits cannot be defined. Make it a rule never to play a full shot with a mashie or use a club with which you are at all likely to press. In the approach, to press is fatal; consequently at any given distance the club employed should be well capable of compassing that distance, but not more. This is why professionals as a rule only play half shots; it is the surest play,...
