Betty Bolte. Paperback. Condition: New. 150 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.4in. Introducing the lives, loves, and dangerous times of the men and women in the A More Perfect Union historical romance series! This prequel novella takes place when Charles Town, South Carolina, is about to face the British enemy during the American Revolution. CAUGHT BETWEEN DUTY AND LOVE Joining the revolutionary army was the honorable thing to do but Jedediah Thomson hadn't realized how long he'd be away from the lovely, spirited Miss Elizabeth Sullivan. They'd only begun their courtship when the occupation of Charles Town, South Carolina, trapped her in the city, making it dangerous to get to her. Elizabeth Sullivan feared for her brothers, fighting for American freedom; for her father, pretending to be a loyalist; for family and friends, caught between beliefs; and most of all for Jedediah, the man she loves, who was doing his duty. She cherished every moment they had together, knowing how swiftly it could be taken away. And that made her willing to risk everything to claim a piece of him forever. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
