

From Rape to Forgiveness and the Journey Home (Paperback)

By T. R. Waters

Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .After suffering from memory loss and chronic pain brought on by a car accident the author takes you on an often terrifying journey of holistic healing through shamanism and ayahuasca. The administrators of this very divine plant were discovered to be very inappropriate shamans residing down in the Amazon rain forest. These shamans and their North American apprentices have nothing but their own greed and interests in mind. Risking her life and health Ms. Waters shares her journey, as she discovers that dark energies sent to her kept her suicidal and a gang rape kept her constantly internalizing pain. In the unfolding of the story Waters exposes the many people that carry very dark hearts as they pass themselves off as healers with intentions of taking money and the spirits of the ones they were sent to heal, and giving more than what was bargained for! Her objective is to inform the reader by sharing with you her quest for knowledge on how important due-diligence is when seeking alternative methods of healing. She is gentle in encouraging going within to find ones own...
