During the early years of the Kansas City Art Institute majoring in painting. I have a rude awakening if there is no light. there is no art. Even art often is the true light of our experience replicas or projection. and we never grasp the nature of light. it is also * the nature of art expectations and marvel. So this book is also related to emotion. As the artist Jill Dai Linge said: an artist to indulge in the light and not affected by not thinking in mind we live in a flat world. however. we know this extraordinary magic of the perception of light. it constitutes the great and sublime. it also nourishes our face in the crowd. This is why we watch so with reverence the works of different artists like Pierre Batista special. Monet. Caravaggio and Vermeer. they are a unique way to grasp live in the light. we see through the screen some of the extensive and profound things. this the closing of nine artists. light is their paint precedent originally. and you will see in these works show more kinds of brand new image and style. The editors hope that this book will provide you a unique perspective to watch painting light; hope it helps you learn how...
