Shall I, said I to myself, find in the land of my nativity those congenial spirits, from whom, in the hey-day of youthful blood parting seemed so bitter, even amid the greedy cravings after novelty, so natural to the ardent and youthful mind? I thought of the changes time or death might have wrought, and could not repress my tears. The voice of the captain of the vessel aroused me from my reverie: We shall have a greasy night, I doubt, said he, anxiously looking towards the receding land. I turned to gaze upon it; masses of dense and marble-like clouds enveloped it; the evening was lowering, and although there was scarcely enough of wind. to fill the sails, there was that uneasy motion of the waves, termed by seamen a short sea; and occasionally fitful squalls of wind swept past us, hurrying the vessel for an instant with the swiftness of a meteor, and then, leaving her to plough her sluggish course, rolling and pitching as the short abrupt seas struck her now forward and then aft. Every thing, as the captain observed, seemed ominous of at least a squally night; nor was he deceived I had continued on deck, listlessly watching the crew, as they bustled about...
