Angela left her parents lavender farm with dreams of becoming a professional dog trainer. Getting kidnapped by slavers from outer space was not part of the plan. Fortunately, Angela and a few dozen other women were rescued by Star Guardians. She isnt quite sure how shes going to get back to Earth, but these Star Guardians arent looking too shabby, especially a hunky one named Treyjon. He trains svenkars, four-hundred-pound predators that make pit bulls look like squeak toys. Angela is curious about the animals--and about him. The problem He doesnt seem to know she exists. For Treyjon, the women staying as guests aboard the Star Guardian ship are off limits. The captain has made that clear, so he hasnt allowed himself to admire their feminine assets. But when one of them shows an interest in the powerful predators he trains, animals that scare most women out of the room, hes intrigued. When she proves a knack for working with one of the creatures, hes more than intrigued. He starts wondering how hes ever going to let her go home. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
