Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Decision making on higher education, particularly on school and programme selection, is a daunting task. However, with a comprehensive guideline in place, prospective students can make informed choices towards achieving their academic and career goals. Drawing inspiration from experience and research, this book provides prospective students with easy-to-understand guidelines on factors to consider when making decisions on higher education. It also highlights what prospective students should do to be able to secure admissions, scholarships, and employment after school. Essentially, this book is an advisory document for prospective students, particularly for undergraduate and postgraduate education, but may be useful to all stakeholders in higher education.
