Dragon Festival, Harvest Fire (Paperback)

By Andrew S Cioffi

Mokkou House Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Devastation waged on a young girl's village by a hardened Shogun brings her to the capital of the prefectures in search of his death while his travels take him north to the land of the Dragons in search of settling very different matters with a once loyal and trusted retainer. Dragon Festival, Harvest Fire is a tale of retribution and rebirth, of traditions new and old, of overcoming loss through great sacrifice, and of learning faith in the Elders. It is the telling of ten year old Kiko's battle with what horrors were wrought upon her family and how her patience helps to summon the ways of the Yoru shadow warriors who were all but destroyed. From the boundaries of Ryoku castle, she watches the Shogun as his past haunts his dreams, all the while studying how she will claim his life. Hundreds of miles to the north, it tells the tale of Ginjiro, an unlikely choice to be the next of the Dragon Riders. He is a student of the uncompromising Yamada-Sensei, one who shares a difficult...
