Your attention please, look at the book cover, what do you see Save the Planet, Muslim Moon and Rainbow Cloud. These are your new American colors. No longer will America be represented by old Red, White and Blue colors. Today America is represented by colors of purple, black, green and yellow liberalism. The majority of real Americans consider these new colors toxic to the spirit of America. Many other Americans believe the new colors have already poisoned the spirit of America. The indoctrination of these new liberal colors have prompted the title of this book; American Coloring Book- Poisoned Colors. Prior to 2008 America was considered a master piece coloring book grafting all colors of the world people. Today America is considered a waste dump for other nations refuge and trash undesirables and law breakers. As America is led to the slaughter house of socialism and communism by its 2008 Manchurian Candidate, songs of rebellion have begun to rise from its Conservative and Christian constituents. It used to be that liberals rose up to revolt against government encroachment upon freedom and liberty; today liberals are the government. On May 4th 1970 four Kent State University students were killed during their protest demonstration by National Guard troops. From that deadly event a song called OHIO emerged as the liberal national theme song for all time. Today Conservatives and Christians have started to echo their own theme song which is similar to the liberal theme song OHIO, but with words of convicting truth. In the Conservative theme song of protest, four Americans are identified as patriots who were left to be killed by Muslim Terrorist in Benghazi Libya. Under the command of Americas...
