Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Majestic Mobile There are few cities situated so advantageously for commercial purposes as is Mobile. Like New Orleans, she sits at the gate of many rivers and many roads, facilitating the business of the interior country, and being paid in turn a moderate fee for the service rendered. Mobile river may be compared to a whip stock, and the wide-spreading tributaries, the Tombigbee, the Alabama and their branches, to the lashes. This immense whip spreads out over the whole State of Alabama, and reaches into Mississippi on the one hand and into Georgia on the other. Radiating east, north and south are four lines of railroad, all of which are sources of wealth to the Gulf City. The Louisville and Nashville road, that vast and ever increasing corporation, extends a branch to Pensacola, and there connects with the Pensacola and Atlantic, which runs through a rich and promising country of western Florida, and brings in direct connection with this port the business of all southern and eastern Alabama. The main stem of this Louisville and...
