BUYING THE PERFECT RV

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Buying the Perfect RV is for the novice and full timer alike. Buying an RV is like buying a house. You need to have an inspection done. This book covers what you need to look at and provides the checklist so you know what you are looking for. With the inspection done the next step is buying it. The book will help you determine the cost and other expenses you might not have thought of. Too many people buy recreational vehicles and spend so little time checking them out. Many of those people learn to regret their actions when they find out about all the problems with their RV. Used and New recreational vehicles need a good going over BEFORE the paperwork is signed. This book will guide you through the process, making sure you get the perfect RV for you. The author is a Certified RV Inspector, a full-time RVer with over 40 years of experience. He has taken his knowledge and training and tries to bring that knowledge to you in simple and concise writing. His checklist for each section are available as downloadable files from his website.
