By United States Congress H Appropriations

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Statements of Mr. William Denham, Chairman, and Mr. Theodore Brant, Commissioners of the Shipping Board, and Capt. Charles Yates, Coast and Geodetic Survey: Before the Subcommittee of House Committee on Appropriations in Charge of Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill for 1918 The charters which we should make when we get the vessels should be charters to private persons and to stimulate private interest in over-sea carriage. If we can not do that - as we can not unless we get the money from you for that purpose - we shall have to form corporations and enter into the shipping trade ourselves. As to the funds for administrative purposes of the Government side of the activities of the board we have come to you, in any event. It will be a matter of the policy of Congress, expressed in the grant or nongrant of funds, whether it wishes us to go into this private corporation and enter into the field of management or wish us to simply have supervision over the ships we have, distributing them by charter to the private...
