Sula and the Question of Social Identity in African American Fiction

By Imad Guemmah

GRIN Verlag GmbH. Paperback. Condition: New. 44 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.8in. x 0.1in. Scholarly Research Paper from the year 2010 in the subject Literature - Africa, Mohamed I University (literature and human sciences), course: extensive reading, language: English, abstract: The paper approaches an exploration of two major themes in Sula: social identity and gender subalternity. I would begin with an overview of the major points that mark the novel, and then shift to violently serious disagreements that bore reference to the submissive, subaltern position that Sula had to encounter. It is common sense to assume a certain Manichean worldview, for societies are bound to declare unorthodox conduct as persona non grata. This will pave the way for questioning a priori justifications to the meaning of reality and illusion. Afterwards, I will emphasize the social, racial and psychological facets of resistance and representation, which portray oppressing challenges within society. These result in clear-cut demarcations, which in the event of being drawn, ontological questions germane to identity prove primordial. Next, I am highlighting philosophical explanations of self and other based on two critical angles: androcentrism (i. e. David Hume, Emanuel Kant and Durkheim) and feminism (i. e. Julia Kristeva and Simone de Beauvoir)....
