A children s picture book about a young farmer s success in planting seeds of God in friends hearts. Includes instructions to download music to the words of the story. Contributors are as follows: Author Tim Loveland was born and raised in the rolling hills of southwest Lower Michigan and educated at very small elementary and high schools. After 30 years in the auto industry and ten years of retirement, he has turned to personal and spiritual enrichment in the arts to conceive this storybook. Tim hopes you will consider the young farmer s plan and be inspired. Remember, it is never too late to get on your knees and talk to your Creator. Illustrator Erica Beilby grew up in Kalamazoo, drawn to different art styles and media. Her schooling at KVCC s Center for New Media and the Kalamazoo Institute of Arts has helped refine her skills. Each of her pieces has its own unique look. At 19 years, she has found happiness in using her abilities to enliven other people s ideas. Erica s inspiration comes from her great-grandmother who...
