Gene, you are going to go places you never dreamt of seeing and you will minister to people you never could imagine you would reach. Don't be afraid. I will be your seal of approval and, as long as you yield to My will, I will be with you. This was the word given to an unlikely recipient, a self-conscious young boy who was awaiting such a word to bring direction to his future. That prophetic message would begin a journey which has spanned over forty years and taken him from storefront churches and concert halls in the sixties, as part of one of America's first integrated Gospel groups, to ministry opportunities (to this day) both in the United States and abroad. Within the pages of this book, Gene, chronicles that journey in a frank, intimate and inspiring manner. He shares as an encouragement to his readers, the way God took a willing ordinary vessel and used it in unimaginable ways. BIO005000 Minister Gene D. Viale Minister Gene D. Viale Gene Viale was introduced to the Traditional Black Gospel Audience in 1964, by the Rev. James Cleveland, as one of his legendary James Cleveland Singers. Traveling throughout the United States at a time when in the south Jim Crow was a live and well. He is considered Black Gospel music's first attempt to integrate. His ministry career continues, to this day almost fifty years later.
