

Zero Point Horizon: A Philosophy Fiction Novel (Paperback)

By Jr Hogan

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A character driven journey into an impossible dream. A Philosophy Fiction novel: a non conventional tale that may fit somewhere in-between science fiction and non-fiction metaphysics. The experience is revealed by Joe Bellcamp, as it happens to him. In a world where true uniqueness may be impossible, as every new invention and discovery has already been made, Joe s adventure defies all normal parameters. His true character as an educated and struggling philosopher clashes with his reputation as a simple, hard working house painter. In a near isolated environment, surrounded by frustrated construction workers, Joe s Perspective is inadvertently revealed to everyone. Although relentlessly attacked by cynical reactions, his philosophical theory continued to evolve. A plan arose from the mix, among those few who proved to be more open minded. Joe and his new partners decide to create an incredible invention. Ahead lies the promise of a device which, by all logical accounts, will unveil the greatest discovery ever known: the Zero Point Horizon. Inspiration grows into driven determination, regardless of the difficulty, the invention plan moves forward. Based...
