New York Times Gazzaniga is one of the most brilliant experimental neuroscientists in the world. Tom Wolfe Gazzaniga stands as a giant among neuroscientists, for both the quality of his research and his ability to communicate it to a general public with infectious enthusiasm. Robert Bazell, Chief Science Correspondent, NBC News The author of Human, Michael S. Gazzaniga has been called the father of cognitive neuroscience. In his remarkable book, Whos in Charge, he makes a powerful and provocative argument that counters the common wisdom that our lives are wholly determined by physical processes we cannot control. His well-reasoned case against the idea that we live in a determined world is fascinating and liberating, solidifying his place among the likes of Oliver Sacks, Antonio Damasio, V. S. Ramachandran, and other bestselling science authors exploring the mysteries of the human brain. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN.
