Loss, Change and Bereavement in Palliative Care

By Pam Firth, Gill Luff, David Oliviere

Open University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Loss, Change and Bereavement in Palliative Care, Pam Firth, Gill Luff, David Oliviere, 'For anyone seeking to develop their understanding of loss and change, whether in a palliative care of general or social care setting, this book contains much useful material which can be taken selectively or in its entirety' - Hospice Information Bulletin. How do professionals meet the needs of bereaved people? How do professionals undertake best practice with individuals, groups, families and communities? What are the implications for employing research to influence practice? This book provides a resource for working with a complex range of loss situations and includes chapters on childhood bereavement, and individual and family responses to loss and change. It contains the most up-to-date work in the field presented by experienced practitioners and researchers and is relevant not only for those working in specialist palliative care settings, but for professionals in general health and social care sectors. Strong links are maintained between research and good practice throughout the book. These are reinforced by the coherent integration of international research material and the latest thinking about loss and bereavement. Experts and clinicians draw upon their knowledge and practice,...
