Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Only when individuals are at Peace may the world be at Peace. This collection of evocations reminds readers of the ways and practices whereby they may find that peace. It is arranged conveniently into twelve parts that correspond to the months of the year. Accompanying each is a series of images that lend themselves to contemplation and meditation. Bringing individual meaning to universal images allows the merger of personal knowings with universal. I have deliberately left the punctuation quite ill defined so that individual voices may emphasis and connect the ideas according to their own predilections and preferences. Likewise I have refrained from naming deities and attributes so that this work may be held up as a reflection no matter the background of the reader. Universal Peace is an ideal. One that I have come to feel is obtainable through individual growth and development. I hope this thin volume will aid you in the achievement of your own steps toward that goal. Hunger is a universal need that interrupts the movement toward peace in many ways. There is no simple answer to that problem. But on an individual level we can do something about it by feeding one mouth at a time. All royalties paid the author from the sale of this book will be gifted to local food banks without any processing fees deducted. If you are part of a group seeking ways to contribute to the alleviation of hunger in your community, you might want to consider the resale of this devotional toward that end.
