Aperture October 2016, 2016. Trade Paperback. Condition: New. Musicians and designers have also sifted through photography's rich history for powerful photographs to match and keep company with the music enclosed within: Anders Peterson's classic Cafe Leibnitz portrait of a man nestled into a partner, stands in for Tom Waits on the cover of 'Swordfishtrombones'; Big Star and Alex Chilton push the listener into a corner with William Eggleston's 'Red Ceiling' on their album 'Radio City'; Rage Against the Machine goes for the jugular with the anonymous Vietnam War photo of the self-immolation of a Buddhist monk. Iconic images like the 'Abbey Road' crosswalk are deeply inscribed in our collective memory, but we know few details about the photographer of the image. All of these and more are included in this compendium of electrifying images and the albums they grace. Total Records reveals the artists behind some of the most striking images on vinyl sleeves and takes us on a journey through the cultural history of the twentieth century.
