Brand New Book  Print on Demand .I had been addicted to Vicodin and Norco for almost ten years when I received my first scrippie or prescription for Oxycontin. I took two of the little pink beauties and washed them down with a soda. While driving, the Oxycontin hit me like a freight train. A warm rush filled my veins as I pulled my car over due to the intensity of the feeling. My jaw became soft, my temples were ringing with joy, and I was this soft, gummy person that became a fixture in the seat of my car. A teardrop rolled down my eye, and any bit of physical pain I had was gone. Much more powerful than Vicodin or Norco, it was pure religion. I thought, This is exactly how God and Jesus Christ want me to feel for the rest of my life, nothing should feel this good. I tried rehab facilities, medically supervised detoxifications at home, I even paid $10,000 to have a procedure performed to clean my blood in hopes that it would fix me. *For the last two and a half years of my addiction I was on a breathing machine to keep me alive. I would stop breathing 40-50 times a night due to the depth of my insanity with the drug use. *I checked myself into rehab on February 16th, 2007 and near certain death. Dr. Daniel Headrick, Medical Director at South Coast Hospital in Laguna Beach, Ca said, I have worked with and detoxified more than 12,000 patients, and your case is probably the worst I have ever seen. *I didn t sleep for the first 44 days of my recovery. I made a...
