Excerpt from Improvement Era, Vol. 3: Organ of Young Men s Mutual Improvement Associations The instructions received by the missionaries were to settle among the Flathead, Bannock or Shoshone Indians, or anywhere that the tribes would receive them, and there teach the Indians the principles of civilization; teach them to cease their savage customs and to live in peace with each other and with the whites; to cease their roving habits and to settle down; also to teach them how to build houses and homes; in fact to do all that they could to better the condition Of these fallen people, and bring them to a better life. They were also instructed to take with them sufficient provisions to last them one year so that they should not be a bur den to the people whom they were to civilize and convert, but rather to be able to feed them. They were also instructed to be honest and upright in all their intercourse with the red men. The missionaries were promised that if they would labor in humility for the...
