Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Like many Americans, Janet Smith plays the lottery. She always picks the same numbers. They coincide with her children s birthdays. She considers it a harmless distraction and an unlikely daydream. When the fantasy becomes reality, she s sure all her problems are behind her. After all, if she has two hundred and sixty million dollars in the bank, why should she worry about anything? Janet quickly learns her unexpected windfall comes with its own unique, and dangerous, challenges. Suddenly everyone wants something from her, and even her own family has dubious motives. Her daughter, a recovering addict, makes the mistake of informing her druggie boyfriend, and he invents a clever litigious ruse to get his hands in Janet s pockets. Janet and her husband haven t gotten along in years, and she suspects he s having an affair with her best friend. Will her hubs and her bestie try to knock her off, in the hopes of riding off into the sunset with the golden ticket? Violent kidnapers and money-hungry distant relations lurk around every corner. Janet is exhausted and terrified, and she hasn t even cashed in. She starts to wonder if her winning ticket is a blessing-or a curse.
