Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Address to the Soldiers of the Army of the Potomac To my former Companions in Arms the survivors of the Fifth Corps, and to my fellow-soldiers of the Army of the Potomac. Comrades: The prominence which has of late been given to the case of Gen. Fitz John Porter, and the efforts put forth to secure a decision upon partisan grounds of the measure now pending before Congress for his relief, load me to address you in that friendly spirit which should ever govern the intercourse between men who have shared hardships and dangers together. We may differ in politics - we may not agree as to facts or conclusions in every respect - but there is one broad platform upon which we may all stand - the platform of justice. In this belief I have confidence that you will give heed to my words and approve of what I shall say; or if you cannot altogether approve, that you will accord to me the credit of having spoken naught but the sincere convictions...
