

Killing Neptune's Daughter (Paperback)

By Randall S. Peffer

Corvus Publishing Group, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. New edition. Language: English . Brand New Book. The perfect book for those who fancy the darker, grittier side of mystery. A hit-you-in-the-guts psychothriller, this is a compelling story of one man's search for truth and inner peace. Mystery Scene This is a story for those who can handle grit with their detective fiction . . . provocative and disturbing portrait of Cape Cod youth running seriously amok. It's worth the turn of the screw on the reader's thumbs, however, for Mr. Peffer's unforgettable characters, startling revelations, and haunting New England atmospherics. Vineyard Gazette Returning to his hometown was something Billy Bagwell always dreaded. But he felt he owed it to Tina, the object of his childhood sexual obsession, to see her off properly. Even in death she could seduce him to her. Upon his return to Wood's Hole on Cape Cod, Billy's past with his old friends especially his best friend, present-day Catholic priest Zal floods his mind with classic machismo and rite-of-passage boyhood events. But some of their moments were a bit darker, and all seemed to revolve around or involve Tina
