Excerpt: . . . 11 The company is almost ten years old, making us sort of the old man of the industry we are talking about today. These problems take a long time in terms of the biology necessary to create plant life that can provide a remarkably different energy source than the ones you are seeing today. So while the other members around the table use machines to produce it, we use plants to produce what they need to put into their machines. So I will talk briefly about us and then we basically serve as a footprint for what the industry will likely look like over the next couple of years. So the company works both on biodiesel and on ethanol, both in next generation or generation and a half. So the biodiesel crop we use is a crop similar to...
