THE EXILES RETURN

Picador. 1 Cloth(s), 2013. hard. Book Condition: New. A group of exiles that includes Jewish scientist Kuno Adler, Greek businessman Theophil Kanakis, brooding teenager Marie-Theres, and Prince "Bimbo" Greinwhose title is now meaningless come home to a Vienna that has been devastated by World War II. And though years have passed, the world has not changed; some of those who are repatriated will be threatened by anti-Semitism, while others will be tempted by the longstanding decadence of the ruling class. This previously unpublished, semi-autobiographical novel by Elisabeth de Waal (1899-1991) features a foreword by her grandson, the Costa Book Award-winning author of The Hare with Amber Eyes. "De Waal's acid, eyewitness drama of malignant prejudice, innocence betrayed, the disintegration of the old order, and love transcendent has the same jolting immediacy as the novels of Irène Némirovsky. Another de Waal triumph of illumination." Booklist 319.
