E2 2009n OCLC Number: (OCoLC)613333786 Subject: Predatory lending -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 retain qualified employees. In 17 of the past 20 years, military and Federal personnel have received equal pay increases, yet the Presidents budget proposes an across-the-board adjustment of only 2. 6 percent while the military would receive 4. 1 percent in increase. This 2. 6 percent increase is less than the FEPCA formula and fails to close the pay gap between Federal and private sector workers. How do you justify the lack of parity in pay And how would you address the competitive pay gap that exists in government Mr. B. I want to first begin by saying I fully support the pro-LAIR posals contained in the Presidents budget. The way that we would justify this is that we are on a war footing right now and a war footing requires us to engage in the allocation of scarce resources. It is important to consider the 2. 6 percent proposed increase in a broader context however. The 2. 6 percent is an increase across-the-board adjustment that will be given to all employees. Employees will also be able to avail themselves of their longevity increases or otherwise known as within-grade increases. Employees will also be eligible for other performance-based increases as well, such as quality step increases, career ladder and merit promotions, incentive awards, and retention bonuses. But you raise a very good question of how we will look at this in terms of comparability. And that is one of the areas that Director Kay James is beginning to look at and has been talking about and...
