CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 48 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. An excerpt from the introductory chapter: SWITZERLAND, with only 15,469 square miles of land and some 3,500,000 people, had a total foreign trade in 1906 of 855,770,382, made up of 465,739,730 imports and 390,030,652 exports. The imports are mainly foodstuffs and raw materials, while the exports are principally manufactured products. The largest single item in the export list is silk goods, while the second largest is cotton goods, and for 1907 it is probable that cotton goods will rank first. In 1906 Switzerland imported cotton and cotton manufactures to the value of 21,419,273, clothed its own people, and exported cotton manufactures to the value of 40,928,053. The total Swiss figures for cotton and cotton manufactures show that 32,900,670 came in over the border and that 52,409,450 went out over the border, but of this 11,481,397 represents the value of cotton manufactures that simply passed through the country, and as it did not in any way affect the actual Swiss trade...

Reviews

It is just one of the best publications. This can be for anyone who states that there was not a well worth reading through. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Tara Jerde

This publication might be worthy of a read through, and superior to other. It normally is not going to charge excessive. It has been written in a remarkably simple way and is particularly just after I finished reading through this book through which in fact transformed me, alter the way I really believe.
